

Kathy McKinnon

STYLING & ART DIRECTION

styling. interiors. props .artdirection

Kathy has many years experience in wardrobe & interior styling, prop sourcing, set design and art direction.

Her contemporary portfolio is a testimony to her ongoing success as one of Australia's most versatile advertising stylist. From her design and production expertise, to her strong visual eye honed from many year's experience styling and art directing stills and TVC's, she is renowned for her ability to translate and execute complex briefs in a confident, time – effective way.

Over the years. Kathy has consistently produced a high standard of creative work for a wide variety of clients and has worked on numerous award- winning campaigns. She has an extensive list of professional contacts in Australia and overseas, which she uses to add value to all the jobs she undertakes. Her impressive client list is due to her collaborative spirit, creative flair and level headed attention to detail

Magazines

Kathy is a regular contributor to the Good Weekend trend page and has published editorials in magazines including Cream, Good Weekend, Gourmet Traveller, Real Living and Selector

<

